

E-teacher for American Sign Language (ASL)

Vienna | part-time

Lingvano

Lingvano offers an intuitive and affordable way to learn Sign Languages online. To extend our service, we are looking for an e-teacher for creating content in American Sign Language (ASL).

Your tasks

- » Creation & implementation of an intuitive and exciting learning concept for teaching American Sign Language online
- » Development of innovative learning content types
- » Implementation of feedback loops and active interaction with our user base to further improve our services
- » Content management on our web platform (Wordpress based)

Key qualifications

- » Fluent skills in American Sign Language (ASL) – preferably native speaker
- » Ability to work self-dependent and think creatively
- » Experience in the e-learning industry as well as using Wordpress as content management system preferred – in any case high motivation for advanced training

What we offer

- » Being part of building and scaling a successful company with a clear social mission
- » Flexible working with the possibility to work remotely
- » Flat hierarchies to foster an innovative working environment – your ideas are always welcome!

Sounds interesting?

We are looking forward to your CV and a message to office@lingvano.com.

part-time basis (18 weekly working hours)